HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

GREAT CONTEST ON PASSAGE OF THE WEST SIDE RAILROAD BILL.

END OF THE RAILROAD CONTROVERSY—OREGON POLITICS — DEMOCRATIC REPUDIATION PLATFORM, DISGRACEFUL TO THE STATE, DANGEROUS TO ALL PUBLIC INTERESTS, AND DAMAGING TO THE CREDIT OF OUR RAILROAD BONDS, ETC., ETC.

WASHINGTON CITY, D. C. April 29, '70.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Oregon is ahead. The West Side Railroad Bill to-day passed both Houses of Congress, the first and only land grant bill passed this session, or likely to for several months. As the pioneer of the land grant fight and representative of the land grant policy, it deserves more than a passing notice. For nine long weeks we have labored to reach a vote on the measure in the House, and the success with which we have been held back by the enemies of land grants, shows their strength. But the accumulating forces to day bore down all opposition and reached the bill on the "Table." Holman, Dem. of Indiana, had the floor, and with Fernando Wood, used up their hour in set speeches, violating their agreement to let Mr Smith have time to explain the bill. By arrangement, Fitch of Nevada, was to make the leading speech in favor of the land grant policy, which he did eloquently and ably, speaking forty minutes. The floor was then given first to McCormick, Dem. of Mo., for three minutes to state the position of the Land Committee in favor of the bill; then ten minutes to Smith to answer questions. It being near five o'clock when Smith got the floor, and the House becoming impatient, although by general consent he was authorized to take his own time to explain, yet feeling the great importance of reaching a vote before an adjournment, which would have defeated us, he called the previous question. Speaker Blaine rapidly pressed the vote, first by acclamation, then by "division," then by "tellers," and finally by the ayes and noes, and when it was finally apparent that we had the House, then commenced the sidefights. Greater excitement had never been seen on the floor before and no words of mine can portray the intense feeling of nearly two hundred members, all talking, most of them on their feet, and many in hot blood. The irrepressible Ingersoll was pitching into Sam Cox; Beck was pitching into Trimble, his colleague; Wilson, of Minnesota, was firing away at Holman; Smith, of Iowa, was tearing away at Hawley, of Illinois (both members of the Land Committee); Maynard was gesticulating mildly at the whole Democratic side; Sargent was firing away at all the opposition generally; and Root, of Arkansas, was rallying his Southern friends; while Eldridge, of Wisconsin, with oaths both loud and deep, and clenched fist, was denouncing his Democratic friends as miserable factionists. It was plain that the West Side bill was not on trial, but the two hundred other Land Grant bills, donating one hundred millions of acres, for twenty thousand miles of railroad, and looking to the investment of a thousand million dollars, regarding this as a test vote, had precipitated all their force and fire into the contest. But the battle was brief under the operations of the previous question, and the Speaker soon announced the final result 77 for the bill and 69 against it.

SENATOR WILLIAMS.

In this letter I desire to say a word personal of Senator Williams. No matter what may have been heretofore said, justice requires me to say that he has labored faithfully for the interests of Oregon on this question. Senator Williams has occupied a very difficult and embarrassing position; and in the heat of this railroad controversy, and under the pressure of the pecuniary interests of the men engaged in these railroads, his motives have not gone unquestioned. A different feeling or state of affairs could not have been expected. But now that the battle is over, and both enterprises are fairly successful, mainly by his labors, we should not hesitate to do him full and complete justice. For myself, I am now entirely satisfied that he has acted conscientiously in the matter, and to the best of his judgment and ability; and although we did not agree as to what was right and best for West Side interests, yet his proposition is doubtless the best thing we could secure under the circumstances. Many persons in Oregon think it a very easy job to secure a railroad land grant. It is the very reverse. It is the most difficult piece of legislation in Congress: and anything less than the most careful management, and untiring efforts, will result in failure. To such management, and to such efforts, Senator Williams superadded all his political influence (and I tell you that is a power here) and he deserves well of our people without distinction of party. It is an unusual thing for a Senator to leave his seat in the Senate, and go into the House as lobbyist; but Senator Williams did that kind of work (and so did Mr. Corbett) ; and had it not been for such efforts, the bill would have hung by the ears until July, and probably never reached a hearing, instead of being, as it is, the first and only land grant bill yet passed at this session.

RIVALRY ENDED.

I trust I have said enough on this subject; but not more than candor and justice demanded. And I also sincerely hope this railroad contest between the East and West Side may now have an end. It has been productive of evil, and evil only, although the contest itself was unavoidable after the organization of the Salem Company. With the disincorporation of the East Side Oregon Central, all incentive for West Side opposition to the East Side enterprise was removed, and has ceased in fact so far as I know.

Arrangements have been made here, which, if properly encouraged by the people on the line of the road, will secure the early completion of the West Side road. And I may also state that the North Pacific Road, to the interests of which Senator Corbett has devoted his efforts this session, is now a certainty.

OREGON POLITICS.

As there seems to be a necessity for every man to speak out for the right at this time, you must excuse a few words on the political situation in Oregon. I have carefully read the proceedings and platform of the late Democratic State Convention in Oregon, and must confess to both surprise and astonishment at the depth of the "pit" it was necessary to sink in order to reach the "Bed Rock." It is dangerously low down, and if there is any other place lower it is certainly not to be reached through a political convention. What do the Democratic leaders in Oregon mean? Their so called platform has been repudiated by ninety-nine hundredths of their party in the nation, and its only representative among the seventy-eight Democrats in Congress, is the notorious Munger.

To strip the Albany platform of the glittering and senseless generalities and bungling verbiage with which it is beclouded, it resolves itself into just two propositions. First, The civil and political disfranchisement, and the indirect enslavement of the enfranchised colored people. Second, The repudiation of the national bonds.

All over the Northern States, and in most of the South, the sensible leaders of the Democracy are accepting the situation in good faith and treating the colored people, before the law, as the Constitution treats them; and it is a matter for deep regret that the free State of Oregon, alone, should now produce a political Convention that sets up a howl for the restoration of the good old days when demoralized fathers could sell their own daughters into slavery and prostitution, and when the slave driver, with his bloody insignia of the lash and the branding iron, could ply the horrid trade under the shadow of the nation's capital and flout his cruel flag in the face of the Goddess of Justice. Thomas A. Hendricks of Indiana, certainly the ablest and wisest of the Democratic statesmen, came out in a public speech a few days ago, and advised his party to unite with all citizens, to secure to the negroes the legal and equitable fulfillment of the 14th and 15th amendments, and his position is generally approved by the Democratic press; while the Democratic Legislature of Maryland is making haste to provide equal educational advantages to colored children. If there is anything secured by "assurance made double sure," it is the civil and political rights of the negroes, and it is only the "gnawing of a file" to fight against it now. Revolutions never go backward, and this legislation for the black man cannot be undone.

> "Not as well the tall
> And pillared Allegany fall—
> As well Ohio's giant tide
> Roll backward on its mighty track."

Of course the same rebel "spirit which would attempt to undo the political results of the war to crush the rebellion, would refuse to pay the expense of the war. But we ought to expect a little common sense, a little "method in their madness" on this point, inasmuch as it relates to the practical matter of dollars and cents. But if these Democratic leaders can explain their "equitable adjustment" theory to any audience of Oregon voters, without either proving themselves to be fools, or, that they have measured their hearers as such, then they are entitled to a point. "That to relieve the country and to restore prosperity we favor an equitable adjustment of the bonded debt of the United States;" and it is quite plain says Mr. Humason, that don't say repudiation. But it does, for all that, and now let us analyze it. To carry out this Democratic adjustment, Congress must needs pass a law, declaring that we owe but fifty per cent. of the bonds, (as that is the amount which I presume is deducible from the words, "increased more than two fold," used in the same section of the platform with the adjustment clause;) and calling on the bondholders to come forward, and be severally adjusted, and take their money. The Democratic leaders don't propose to pay any more interest, and therefore like the bankrupt trader, they would have the nation pay down one half, and call it square. To do that, we must raise in cash, about thirteen hundred millions, and to withdraw which immense sum from the circulating medium of the world, and concentrate it in one place, would of itself produce a financial crash throughout Europe and America. The Treasury has generally about one hundred millions available, and would therefore have to borrow nearly the whole of this vast amount. How would you borrow? Give your note—give new bonds, bearing interest, because the Government could not get it in any other way without confiscation. Where would you borrow? Here are your bondholders in response to your call, from the four quarters of the globe and the very ends of the earth—widows and orphans, life insurance, annuity and trust funds of every description, answering to your Democratic "adjustment," and ready to accept your fifty per cent, and go home and reflect on the gratitude of Republics. But you have no money, and then sirs, when you ask for it, in exchange for new bonds, or in any other way, you will be told amid the gibes, jeers, contempt and execration of all mankind, that you have repudiated your contract, you have dishonored your own paper, and if you will do that once, you will again, and you can have no money, except on a gambling speculation—ten cents on the dollar for your new bonds; and to raise fifty per cent of the present debt, it would cost the government five or ten times what we now owe. And the same depreciation of the bonds, and multiplication of the present debt would occur if the Government offered to replace fifty per cent, or any other amount less than par, of the present bonds with new bonds, or any other form of pretended payment. Does any one doubt such a result? If so, let him repudiate fifty per cent of his own note, and see how much credit he will gain by it. That is the inevitable result of the Democratic "adjustment" scheme, and no man can disprove it.

ACTUAL REPUDIATION.

Now for the repudiation part of it. The bonds of the United States were sold by its fiscal agent, Jay Cooke, who disposed of them to banks, bankers, trustees, corporations, and private individuals of every rank and station, and received for them from ninety-five per cent to par in currency, which was paid into the Treasury. The transaction between Mr. Cooke and the purchasers of bonds was a straight forward business transaction, just as he is now selling North Pacific Railroad bonds, in which a fair price was paid for the bonds, and no man can now dispute it. Since the original transaction most of the bonds have changed hands at from 87 to 98 in gold, and I question if one-fourth of them are now held by original purchasers, and this fourth is made up of trust funds for charitable and benevolent societies, and widows and orphans, whom to despoil of their incomes, honestly accruing, would be no less a crime than to steal the bread of charity from the hands of orphan children. To summon all these bondholders now to take fifty per cent. for their bonds, would be actual repudiation of that much of an honestly contracted debt, and no amount of theory can make anything else out of it.

That the Government was swindled out of vast sums of money during the war, there can be no doubt; and that the suppression of the rebellion cost twice as much as it ought, may be readily admitted, but it was neither the purchasers or the holders of these bonds who did the swindling, or increased the cost of the war. The swindling was done by parties who always gain by war, and who received from the Treasury the money honestly and patriotically paid in by the people who took the bonds for their cash, in order to save the nation from total destruction; while the increased cost of the war, if I mistake not, resulted from the action of Northern Democrats, who went around howling, "you can't whip 'em," thus encouraging the rebels to prolong a bloody and hopeless contest. And such is the case in all civil wars. They cost more than wars of conquest. It is impossible now to reach the swindling contractors and punish them for their crimes; but it is some satisfaction that the law requires secession sympathizing Democrats to pay their share of a debt they helped to pile up.

PAYING THE BONDS.

I know it will be said that the bonds were purchased with greenbacks worth only fifty cents on the dollar. That may be true, and yet it does not affect either the legal or equitable obligation of the nation to pay the bond as it stands. The currency was depreciated by the enemies of the country, not by its friends. Depreciation was a munition of the enemy, as much as powder and shot, and what was worse, it was used by the enemies in our midst. The purchasers of bonds had every incentive to appreciate the currency and hold it up to a gold standard, for just as greenbacks went down, the government went down, and everything else calculated to secure the investment in bonds. The bonds were offered to the public—to everybody—not to the few. It was a fair open contract of sale. The government was beleaguered by enemies on land and sea, at home and abroad, and in our own councils; and there was great risk in advancing any money on its bonds. Those who did buy bonds run the risk, and showed their confidence and patriotism, and aided the government to put down its enemies. Fay, Grover & Co. certainly did not aid in that way. They were of the party who declared, "you can't whip 'em," or like the bed-rocker of Polk, aided the rebels by declaring "a cord of greenbacks not worth a whoop in hell," and it is not their province now to dispute the bonds sold to the nation's friends in open market, unless they will first go over squarely and range themselves under the banner of Jefferson Davis. It was by reason of this very money, advanced by the bondholders, that the rebellion was crushed, peace restored, and the currency and bonds brought nearly up to the gold standard. The bondholders thus honestly made money by their risk, but because they made money you can't turn round on them and rob them.

AN ARGUMENT FOR OREGONIANS

Many years ago this same government passed a law contracting to give every family six hundred and forty acres of land in Oregon if they would go there and settle on it. Many thousands of hardy pioneers from the Western States came to Oregon, and closed the contract with the Government. They took some risk of Indians, etc., but now they all have fortunes in their lands and beautiful homes. What think you, Oregon farmers, of a political party which would now say, that because we, who came to Oregon at a later day, can only get one fourth as much land as you did, and that in the mountains and brush, therefore we favor an "equitable adjustment" of the land estates in Oregon, so that you old Donation claimants must surrender to the rest of us, or the public, three-fourths of your land? There is a fairly parallel case in every respect. The government wanted the country settled, and it offered an inducement which involved great risk to those who accepted it. But like the purchaser of the bond, a reward was coupled with the risk; it was a fair contract, and those who availed themselves of this offer, in both cases, have made money by their risk; and the government can now no more interfere with the rights of its bondholders, than it can with the rights of the Oregon Donation Land holders. There never was a more infamous proposition to rob men, than is contained in this "equitable adjustment" repudiation scheme. Why, it is worse than the Democrats say of the present tariff on woolens; under which the Democratic candidate for Governor made all his money. I have heard the Democrats in Congress, day after day, denounce the operation of that tariff, as "swindling," "stealing," "robbery." These are the words; and now how would Mr. Grover like to have a law passed to "equitably adjust" him out of his profits, honestly made by virtue of this tariff, in the manufacture of wool at Salem. How does he like his own medicine? I cannot believe that the Democratic farmers of Oregon, who have received their lands and homes from the government, and who would scorn to repudiate their own obligations, will allow any clique of politicians to place them in such a false and dishonorable position, as to vote to repudiate the nation's debt, and bring dishonor on the name of an American citizen, of which honor they are justly proud.

THE WAY TO DISASTER.

But such a move must be disastrous in every view of the case. Instead of "relieving the country and restoring prosperity," any proposition made in Congress, by a party able to carry it out, to enact this "equitable adjustment" swindle, would be the signal of the most terrible and disastrous financial crash ever witnessed in any country. The ink would not be dry on the approval of such a law, until every factory, mill and workshop, from Lowell to Oregon City, would be closed and their operatives idle in the streets. Your ships would rot at your wharves, your grain become worthless, the plow stop in the furrow, your railroads stop where they are, and nine-tenths of your merchants and traders be hurried into the vortex of general ruin. The National debt is now the business capital of our home and foreign commerce, having supplanted State stocks, and it cannot be disturbed without involving everybody in loss and many in ruin. But the pecuniary loss would be nothing compared to the loss of national honor and good name. It is far easier to pay a large debt honestly than a small one dishonestly; and it is not only because honesty is honor and justice itself, but it is also because it is cheaper, that makes it the best policy.

A CALAMITY TO OREGON.

But I again ask, what do the Oregon Democrats mean? Your triumph upon such a platform would be a calamity to the State. Your Representative and Senator would not only be powerless in Congress, but would be an actual damage to prospects for further aid to railroad and other improvements, and they could serve the State best by staying at home. You propose to withdraw Oregon from all support and sympathy from all the rest of the nation. Then what can we do? Your triumph would discredit our railroad bonds now being negotiated here and abroad. Capitalists would say, "if you Oregonians will repudiate the national debt, in which we are now interested, you will swindle us with your railroad bonds, and I won't touch them." The State of Mississippi is an example. They repudiated their State debt, and ever since that day, their State and Railroad bonds have been the curse of the stock market. Better for Oregon that universal blight should blast our next crop, yes, that plague and pestilence should visit us, than we should be disgraced and damaged by a verdict for repudiation and dishonor.

I had intended to say something of the Democratic opposition to our railroad interests: but this letter is already too long, and it must be entirely unnecessary, since the Oregon Democratic platform is plainly adverse in asking for Government aid. Friends to railroad improvements ought to know that a Democratic victory is the end of further aid to our proposed roads, and either vote against the Democracy or stay at home. I know it is a bitter dose to ask Democrats to stand by and consent to a victory for their old opponents; but remember, that a victory for Fay & Co. is not the triumph of your party, but a mere faction of it. You that are not politicians and never expect to be, have something at stake in Oregon, and you ought not to let designing demagogues and professional office-seekers, so use your political prejudices and party associations, as to make you their tool to do the State an irreparable injury. And as we have often to choose the least of two evils, so may you not well reason this case, and taking that which may appear to you the lesser evil (although to me, the positively right) is it not better for you, for the State, and for all, that men be sent to Congress who can command the support of the Government, and thus secure untold blessings for our new State, now struggling for its railroad and river improvements, its surveys, lighthouses and commerce? Is this not better than to let such men as Jim Fay and Col. O'Dowd put a halter around your necks, run you to a political hell, and the State to ruin?

Republicans can need no urging to work in the next canvass. With an exceptionally good ticket, and a platform pledged to the honor, justice and progress of the country, we ought to triumphantly elect every man.

Very respectfully, J. GASTON.

A New Way to Pay Old Debts

W[illegible] sta[illegible] a few days [illegible] th[illegible] "[illegible]ter hal[illegible] [illegible] went [illegible] en[illegible] [illegible] gu[illegible] m[illegible] [illegible] [illegible]stable adj[illegible] [illegible] that the [illegible] of the [illegible] to pay the [illegible] al [illegible] [illegible] taken [illegible] gl[illegible] [illegible] the [illegible]

The Albany D[illegible] says that [illegible] [illegible] this statement [illegible] credit [illegible] [illegible] the [illegible] of the Democrat[illegible] party everywh[illegible] It [illegible] the position of the Democrat on the [illegible] eighth resolution [illegible] what the [illegible] of every Democratic nominee in the State ought to be This is emphatic enough and we are glad that we have at last got the Democrat committed to a plain proposition

Some months ago however that journal occupied a different position Last February we stated that it appeared by an article in the Democrat that that paper wanted a further issue of greenbacks, to the amount of $400 000 000 and that it was more moderate in this than its party was a short time ago when it was demanding the issue of enough greenbacks to clear off the debt at once To this the Democrat in its issue of the 4th March responded

> Why can t you state the exact truth? The Albany Democrat wants the $400 000 000 that Sherman s funding bill proposes to give the national banks used for the redemption of the bonds The OREGONIAN knows that does not mean more greenbacks or what is the same thing an increase of the paper currency

So last March the Democrat vehemently denied that it wanted an issue of enough greenbacks "to clear off the debt at once " It now says that the thing it then opposed is the position of the party, and the true interpretation of the eighth resolution What has produced this change? Nothing but the necessity of devising some means of getting rid of or explaining away the odious doctrine of repudiation The Albany paper supposes that there is less danger for its party in this greenback proposition than in repudiation in its naked form Something had to be done, some pretense of payment had to be made, and this is a device by which it is hoped to clear the party of the charge of advocating a doctrine as odious as secession ever was

But now, as we are plainly told that "the proposition to pay the national debt by issuing greenbacks enough to meet the whole amount" is "the position of the Democratic party everywhere," it may be worth while to consider it a little Would any sane man really call such an operation as this a "payment" of the debt? What would be done with the twenty five hundred millions of greenbacks? Would they ever be paid or redeemed? If so, how could they ever be paid or redeemed, except with coin? If not, would it be any more honorable to repudiate the debt after it was converted into greenbacks, than to repudiate the now existing bonds? Of course this proposed payment would be no payment at all. It would simply be a conversion of interest bearing securities into notes bearing no interest, which would either have to be paid in turn with coin, or be swept away by repudiation

This plan of issuing greenbacks to the full amount of the debt and exchanging them for the bonds is what the Albany paper calls "paying the debt according to contract " It would be needless to inquire where in the contract, any warrant for such a mode of "payment" is to be found, because it is not there. The mode of payment specified in the contract is payment in coin It is there distinctly provided that one per centum of the entire public debt shall be paid in coin each year This settles conclusively the mode of payment It establishes a precedent for the payment of the whole debt And it is the only mode of payment which is either "according to the contract," or according to common sense If this proposition to "pay" the national debt by issuing greenbacks enough to meet the whole amount is the best substitute the Democrat has to offer for repudiation it had better adopt the plan the Herald has contended for, and go at once for repudiation by the shortest way

A Tariff for Revenue.

There is much complaint in the opposition press about the tariff They think that everything that resembles the idea of protection ought to be rigorously excluded. "A tariff for revenue," is their unceasing demand They seem not to know that the present tariff was framed for revenue, and that the idea of protection is merely an incident of a tariff so framed We now collect duties to the amount of $180 000 000 per annum. Before the war the annual receipts from customs were about $60,000,000 It will be seen, therefore, that we now have a "tariff for revenue " which yields three times as much as was produced by the tariff we had before the war This high rate is imposed mainly because of the necessity of obtaining a large amount of gold to meet the payments of interest on the national debt, which absorbs annually $125 000,000 of the $180,000,000 collected The remaining $55 000,000 together with a portion of the money collected by internal taxation is used in paying the principal, which is being reduced at the rate of nearly $100 000,000 a year

That we have a "tariff for revenue," then, is evinced by the fact that so considerable a revenue is now derived from this source They who complain that the tariff is too high, and who are comparing it with the lower rates that existed before the war, forget that the interest on the public debt is to be provided for Or if they do not forget this they are persons who are given to foolish and factious carping and fault finding What is to be thought of a journal which like the one at Albany, contends that the debt must be paid immediately and yet advocates a large reduction of the tariff and the total abolishment of internal taxes? Such a course is one of the frequent illustrations which we have of the querulous notions and impracticable ideas of Democratic journalism

Editorial Notes

It is the tariff on foreign goods which discriminates in favor of American manufactures that enables Mr Grover to keep his woolen factory at Salem in operation Is he one of the bloated monopolists who have been built up by this system? Great as his gains have been, however he has not been satisfied with them but he and his company have been trying to get Chinese operatives so that they might make more money still

We don't get the names of those "prominent Republicans" who as the Copperhead organ has said, "were approached with a proposition that if nominated for the Legislature, they should bind themselves to vote for Geo H Williams first, and for any man whom Ben Holladay might designate after wards for U S Senator We have made every effort to induce the publication of their names but without success and now the community [illegible] upon the allegation of the [illegible] as a [illegible]ation and slander

We have a statement from a gentleman who was at Washington when the Portland and Astoria railroad bill passed relative to the vote on the measure and the influences by which favorable action was secured It was [illegible] by a [illegible] the H[illegible] [illegible] the Senate [illegible] [illegible] D[illegible] [illegible] majority of the Republicans voted for [illegible] Had not Senator Williams gone over to the House and appealed to the Republicans [illegible] on his own account it could not have passed at least for a long time

We gather from California papers that there is much disaffection and ill feeling among the Democracy of that State at the present time and the indications are that there will be a grand explosion before long the result of which will probably be to split the organization to pieces The chief cause of this dissatisfaction, the Sacramento Record says, is the nature of the appointments recently made by Governor Haight It is claimed that he has with scarcely a single exception selected men known for their violent secession proclivities, and that when he has not bestowed his favors upon the Chivalry wing he has chosen Republicans ignoring the claims of the working portion of the party entirely

CITY.

DESIRABLE LANDS FOR LOCATION.—In answer to an advertisement by Dr A M Loryea for information respecting places for the settlement of a large number of immigrants the Doctor has received among other letters information as follows: Mr J C Franklin of Meadowville [illegible] in a letter dated May 12 1870 says: "Allow me most respectfully to call your attention to a tract of Government lands situated in [illegible] Washington Territory) adjoining the county of Columbia Oregon. The tract of country is to be crossed by the original line of the Northern Pacific Railroad, about midway between the Columbia and Seattle on Puget Sound and is known by the name of Kotlitsh Valley. The valley is from six to eight miles wide and about twenty miles long, and is susceptible of a high state of cultivation the natural product of the country being grasses of a superior nutritious character. There is an abundant supply of good springs and running water, and it is surrounded with high timbered country. The climate will compare favorably with that of the native country of those who are seeking homes according to the notice. [They are English Irish Scotch and Germans for the most part agriculturists and a few mechanics.—REPORTER.] The valley now possesses a few settlers who have recently gone from this county all of whom speak in the highest praise of the natural resources climate, etc., as being of the most satisfactory character."

Prof. S H Marsh of Forest Grove under date of the 10th says: "I write to ask your attention to the Nehalem Valley about half way from here to Astoria. There is a large section of country somewhat rough, but having fertile valleys and bottom lands capable of sustaining a large population. It is a section that would soon when occupied by even a few hundred settlers make as valuable homes as most of the Wallamet Valley as its markets are very accessible. Should you think this section worthy [illegible] you might get from Gen Palmer who has several times visited it a more definite estimate of its resources than I am prepared to give."

SHORT MENTION.—The Circuit Court will meet at 10 o'clock this forenoon.

The U. S. District Court stands adjourned until Monday next.

Lumber is being placed upon the ground for a church on Morrison street west of Ninth street.

The Washington Guard will this year hold their annual picnic at Belleview Grove two miles above Vancouver, on the Columbia river June [illegible]. All who attend may depend upon realizing all anticipations.

Mr Richardson will to-morrow sell a very desirable piece of real estate situated on First street between Madison and Jefferson streets.

Messrs Stephens & Loryea will soon commence the erection of a row of business houses in East Portland.

The —Alert, of the P T Co was again placed in line of service yesterday.

Mr H A Hogue, Superintendent of the Dalles [illegible], arrived in this city last evening.

The river at the O S N Co's wharf, yesterday indicated a rise of but three inches. The river was at a stand still last evening.

Mr E B Underwood Postal Agent, reached here yesterday from the South.

THE PORTLAND BRIDGE COMPANY.—Some error [illegible] in the article yesterday concerning the Portland Bridge Company. The company is [illegible] for the purpose of more efficiency [illegible] of the capital stock which is now [illegible] in gold, each share at one hundred [illegible]. The incorporators now stand as follows: L M Starr, H Failing, B Goldsmith, [illegible], J C Hawthorne and A M Loryea. As soon as they are vested with the proper authority the company propose to immediately have a survey of the river, arrangements having [illegible] Prof. Davidson, to detail from the coast survey proper parties to make such survey which will then be sent to Messrs Loomer [illegible] & Co., the most expert bridge builders in the United States, for plans for the [illegible] and estimates as to its actual cost. Its [illegible] and location will then be decided upon, with the consent of the Secretary of War [illegible] the whole matter will be referred to the people for aid in putting up the necessary [illegible].

THE LOCK GAME.—A swindling operation very [illegible] amongst "confidence men" in this community, is known as the lock device. It is [illegible] of the unsuspecting party [illegible] coin for almost any amount. The trick [illegible] locks, duplicated, one of which the [illegible] is allowed to open with a secret spring—[illegible] is made that he cannot do it again, [illegible] is taken locks are changed upon [illegible] a solid model of the first, which [illegible] open and after a limited time [illegible] operator and his confederate walk [illegible]. Yesterday an old man of 50 [illegible] this city by the lock device [illegible] the operators "spotted" and some [illegible] may yet be caught in a way to insure [illegible] ride to Salem. The game was introduced [illegible] Oregon last fall, together with other [illegible], by a gang at the State Fair [illegible]. They have managed to live in [illegible] ever since one way or another.

[illegible]—The Oregon and California [illegible] will, this week have its telegraph [illegible] in operation for the assistance of other [illegible] construction of the railroad and directing trains. Mr. Williams late of the Western Union Telegraph Company has been [illegible] at the front, and will move on with the building of the road. Mr Stone will be in charge of the company's office in East Portland. Mr [illegible] takes the office of the Western Union at Oregon City, in place of Mr Williams, resigned. It is always as important to have a telegraph [illegible] track to run cars and do the business [illegible] railroad, hence the necessity of the line along the route of Mr Holladay's improvements. [illegible] performs an important part in the running of a train, but on all lines where there is any amount of business cars are "dispatched" and run by electricity, insomuch as it keeps conductors and engineers thoroughly informed regarding their duties.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday a refractory horse which was being shod at a blacksmith shop in this city [illegible] considerable injury to a Mr Kooteni and [illegible] Hill. It appears that it became necessary, in order to hold the horse to put a "twist" upon its nose. The boy was entrusted to hold the slack end of the "twist," and in some way the loop or noose slackened up, when the animal made a plunge, throwing the boy against the wall of the shop, and injuring him so badly that Dr. Watkins was summoned. At the same time Mr H., who was shoeing the horse was [illegible] and Dr Chapman was called to attend to [illegible].

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—DEADY J May 16th.—D. H. Hildburg et al. vs steamship Oregon, North Pacific Transportation Company claimant; decree for libellant for $300 44; appeal to U. S. Circuit Court allowed. Freidenrich for libellant, Mitchell for claimant.

John H. Egan vs steamboat Mary Bell; motion [illegible] and motion to dismiss libel denied; [illegible] submitted, and decree in favor of libellant for $15[illegible] and interest. J C Moreland for libellant; Whalley & E C Smith claimant.

REAL ESTATE.—The following transactions were matters of record at the Clerk's office yesterday:

J M H Freeman to James Carr [illegible] lots [illegible] in block 97, $600.

John D Biglisson and wife to David Metzger [illegible] acres of the donation land claim of the former [illegible].

J S Hill and wife to A P Ankeny all of lot [illegible] Central block and also a fractional portion of another lot situated in the same block $1 300.

VINDICATED.—The Statesman is informed that Mr Gish who was arrested recently in Salem and taken from that place for trial in Iowa on a charge of fraud has been honorably acquitted. It is said that the man who arrested him has got into trouble, and Gish's friends intend to see him fully compensated for the whole transaction. Mr G's young bride who accompanied him East writes to her relatives in Salem that she feels well rewarded for her faith in the man of her choice.

ASPARAGUS.—The editor of the Farmer May[illegible] Francis, of this city writes that the Portland market is filled with miserable asparagus from [illegible]. This asparagus grows under ground [illegible] in the ground, is perfectly white [illegible] not a tenth part of it is eatable. Good asparagus [illegible] should be broken off above ground [illegible] stalk should be green. It then is a healthful [illegible] article for the table.

[illegible]—This article is reported lately to have [illegible] advance in price but from the [illegible] of Alert yesterday we judge it is coming [illegible] rapidly. Thirty-eight hundred and forty [illegible] were received from that source.

WALLAMET IRON WORKS.—Yesterday in our perambulations through the city we visited the Wallamet Iron Works and there found Mr John Nation again installed as superintendent. It is but little more than three months since he resigned the superintendency of those works since which time he has traveled through various parts of the [illegible] and returned satisfied to continue his [illegible] here. We are pleased that his [illegible] one of the class of men who [illegible].

[illegible]—Mr J Q Wilson has left at our office a sample [illegible] such as he manufactures at his place of business [illegible] of the genuine wild cherry and other material. Persons desirous of possessing any article of this kind [illegible] will find the same very cheap at Mr W's place of business on Front street.

JUDGE ANDERSON'S LEVEE.—Ten or twelve cases [illegible] some of which were hard cases—were up before Recorder Anderson yesterday and disposed of as their merits demanded. One of the parties was pronounced insane from the effects of dissipation no doubt and was accordingly sent to the East Portland Asylum.

PRODUCE FROM ALASKA.—The propeller [illegible] brought to this port considerable freight from Sitka which was left at Port Townsend by the steamer [illegible]. The freight consists of furs much of which is from the regular seal [illegible] and pickled salmon consigned to a firm in San Francisco.

PIG IRON.—It looked a little out of the legitimate course of trade to see pig iron discharged from a vessel yesterday for our city foundries. The Wallamet Iron Works got thirty tons and the Oregon Works forty tons from the cargo of the Admiral.

BASE BALL.—All persons interested in the promotion of our National game of Base Ball are requested to meet for practice on the Raleigh grounds at 5 30 P M to-day where a good game and a lot of amusement and exercise may be expected.

WILL SPEAK.—The following is a copy of a poster put up in the city yesterday: Col Chapman speaks in the Court House Thursday evening next May 19th 1870 at 8 o'clock P M. Hear him. Candidates of all parties are invited.

ALDER LUMBER.—Mr W T Wilcox last evening received per [illegible] a fine lot of alder boards from a saw mill down the Columbia. It will be used in the manufacture of furniture.

THANKS.—We are indebted to Purser Goodhue, of the Californian for newspaper files of latest dates from Victoria, also to Mr Fred Weidler Freight Clerk for special favors.

FRESH FISH.—The steamers Wenat and Cowlitz each brought a choice lot of fine fresh salmon yesterday from points on the Columbia.

The Two Banners

ED OREGONIAN

What can be more suggestive or emblematical of the two political parties than the banners now stretched across the streets from their respective club rooms in this city? If ever the Democratic party was truly represented by an inanimate thing it now is by the narrow twisted rag which it has displayed. The old proverb is that straws show which way the wind blows and that was verified this morning and will be verified every day so long as that rag hangs and the wind blows. This morning some persons observed the Democratic rag so badly twisted up that only a portion of the inscription was visible, viz—mocratic from the Latin mocus rattus (I flatter myself that for a stroke of wit this beats anything ever produced by Grasshopper Jim and is far ahead of that editorial in the Herald of Sunday on the names of some gentleman at Oregon City, which editorial ought to have been signed Sic Semple) verily this is the hand writing on the wall and already we can discern consternation on the countenances of the faithful. These banners are the true representatives of the wide difference existing between the parties. The Republican banner is broad well guyed and securely fastened always presenting the same side to the view. Then it is diagonally braced like a staunch ship and abundantly able to weather any gale which it may encounter; and the inscriptions upon it are so plain that he who runs may read.

Commendable Liberality

The first Chinese school established in this State was by Mrs O S Frambes at Salem. Some eighteen months ago she invited all the Chinese who desired to receive instruction to form themselves into a class and meet for that purpose. A number responded the class was formed and the school has held two sessions each week. Beginning with two or three the number has steadily increased to as many as sixteen in attendance—Mrs Frambes being aided in the undertaking by competent young ladies of Salem.

The labors of these ladies were of course gratuitous the only reward sought was the sublime consciousness of laboring for the salvation of souls. Hence it was quite unexpected to themselves when a few days ago the members of the class in token of their gratitude bestowed upon these faithful teachers the very handsome present of one hundred and twenty five dollars sixty of which was in gold. Thus we have a substantial proof that the hearts of the Chinese are not incapable of gratitude, liberality and affection. Treat them well; teach them the knowledge of our language and lead them to Christ, and all will be well.—Christian Advocate

It gives us real satisfaction to announce that there is one American lady in Paris who does not share in the almost universal admiration of American ladies in Paris for the Emperor. So far from falling in love with the august head of "the family" she stoutly declares that his complexion is "green," and that he is "horrid." It is certainly encouraging that even one of the American colony in Paris should see anything in His Majesty's face save milk and roses and the charming altogether feminine horrid may be only a condensed anticipation of history. When this lady comes home (if her name can be ascertained) we trust that the Sorosis will see to it that she has a little tea drinking of welcome.

Newspaper Statements

HOW THE PEOPLE TEST THEIR TRUTH

This is not an age when people believe or trust whatever they see in the public journals. Fifty or sixty years ago when the accuracy of a statement that had appeared in one of the Gazettes or News Letters of the day was questioned it was considered a sufficient answer to all cavil to say "It must be so for I read it in the newspaper." It is not so now. Newspaper assertions must be verified before they are taken for granted and this is especially the case as regards statements setting forth the remedial properties of Proprietary medicines. For example: It was not until the tonic and alterative properties of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has been deliberately and thoroughly tested by thousands and found to be in perfect accord with the printed claims set forth in its behalf that it was accepted by the public at large as a Standard Remedy. But when multitudes who had resorted to it as a safeguard against malarious fevers a cure for indigestion and biliousness a means of strengthening the frame, cheering the spirits and imparting constitutional vigor came forward and testified that its beneficial effects had exceeded their most sanguine expectations of course the world believed. To resist such proofs was impossible. Great care had been taken from the beginning not to overstate the merits of the Bitters. Exaggeration and bombast have been the death of many preparations that might otherwise have survived. They were weighed in the balance and found wanting. Hostetter's Bitters on the contrary have never been announced in grandiloquent language as a cure for every bodily ill, but simply as a pure harmless vegetable specific possessing remarkable invigorating regulating antibilious and antiseptic properties. This is exactly what the public know the medicine to be, and its enormous sales is an argument in its favor.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER NOS 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeiting or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice.

No Antagonism Between Capital and Labor in California.

[From the Alta California]

It is a trick of Demagogues to assert that there is an antagonism between capital and labor in California, and that assertion is used as a reason for urging working men to form combinations for the purpose of protecting themselves against the tyranny of capital, though the first result of the combination is that the tricksters are held up [illegible] for the public as men of influence and proper persons for office.

Instead of any antagonism capital and labor—or rather the capitalists and laborers, for which the other shorter words are used figuratively—have the same interest in this State. The two classes are not separated by any well marked line as they are in Europe and in some of the older States. Without a separation there can be no antagonism. There is here no large class of valuable citizens who are or will be dependent for any long time on their labor alone for their support. All the industrious and economical residents of the State either are or will be small capitalists with a reasonable hope that many of them will become wealthy. The interests of these men are identical with those of the large capitalists. The laborers whose interests—The laborers, whose interest are really adverse to those of the capitalists as a class are either not permanent residents of California, or they are spendthrifts who do not invest anything, or they are politicians. The general interest of the capitalists is that wages should be low enough to enable land owners and manufacturers to employ all applicants with a profit, and high enough to offer the greatest possible attraction to new-comers by enabling them to have more money than in any other State. California will not advance steadily until immigrants will know that they can always find work on their arrival.

When constant employment is offered to all applicants the result will be that land will rise in price, the small capitalists will all seek to become employers or land owners, the poor men without land will take up homestead or pre-emption claims, and the new settlers will give value to the property, the knowledge and the experience of the old Californians. If the old mechanic loses a dollar a day on his wages, he will gain five dollars a day on his land or on the labor of his hired men. The mechanic who declares he has no hope of gaining anything from any source save his personal labor when land rises and manufactures become profitable, condemns himself, and proves that his interest is adverse to that of the State generally.

California contains 120,000,000 acres, including 88,000,000 acres of Federal lands which are offered to settlers at $1 25 per acre, or less. The other 32,000,000 acres have either been granted to individuals or promised to Railroad Companies. The Commissioner of the General Land Office says that there are 80,000,000 acres of tillable land in the State, and at that estimate 48,000,000 acres of tillable land still belong to the Federal Government. Much of this land is remote from the market, but it will come into demand as railroads are built and the population increases. It is not possible to fix a barrier between the laborers and the small capitalists, nor between these and the large capitalists, in a country which, while gaining rapidly in population, offers 48,000,000 acres as a gift to its poor men. The poor white men who try to keep wages so high that our manufactures cannot compete with Eastern rivals thus prevent white immigrants from getting employment, and are really doing the worst possible thing for their own class. There is no antagonism between capital and labor in California, and all the facts cited to prove it only to show an antagonism between demagogues and idlers on one side and the industrial interests of the State on the other.

Tardy Spanish Concessions

[From the N Y Mail.]

If the Cubans have achieved nothing else by their long and desperate revolt against the iniquities and barbarities of Spanish rule, they seem likely to extort from the Spanish ministry concessions which never would have been granted to submissive and craven-spirited colonists.

The liberal statesmen of Spain undoubtedly see that the only way to retain Cuba is by ruling her in accordance with the spirit of the age. Castelar, the most eloquent of living Spaniards, on the 12th of March, urged that the only way to hold Cuba was by the adoption of these sensible and humane expedients:

First—An immediate abolition of slavery, as a holocaust to universal conscience.

Second—The abolition of custom houses, a means economical and politic, which will take away from the United States all desire of annexation, and will banish from the Antilles all ideas of separation.

Third—Extension to those colonists all the rights of Spanish citizens.

Fourth—Autonomy in municipal rules, laws and regulations, autonomy of the islands, but within the folds of our nationality, to the end that these colonies may not be strange and monstrous exceptions.

And our Minister at Madrid, Gen. Sickles, informs Mr. Fish to the following purport:

SIR: The Official Gazette this morning publishes a decree abolishing the regulations that have hitherto been enforced in the Colonies requiring proof of purity of blood as a requisite for admission to public employment, the schools, etc. In the preamble of the decree the Minister of the Colonies justifies the abolition of these tests not only because they are at variance with the spirit of the Constitution, but also because they are practically inoperative and a fruitful source of deception and perjury. It is understood that another decree will immediately be issued establishing freedom of worship in the Philippines and Fernando Po. The Minister of the Colonies has introduced into the Cortes bills for a law of the municipalities of Porto Rico and an election law for the same Island, and has laid before the Council of Ministers for their discussion and approval bills relating to the following important subjects:

1. The law of the Provincial Legislature and the civil government. 2. The law of public order. 3. The alien law for all the colonies. 4. The law of the emancipation of slaves for the Island of Porto Rico. 5. The law declaring the freedom of all negroes born in the Island of Cuba since September 29, 1868.

The following bills are also understood to be ready for presentation:

1. The law of colonization for all the colonies. 2. The law of civil registry and cemeteries. 3. The organization of the courts.

The following bills have been introduced in the Cortes by the Minister of Grace and Justice:

1. Civil marriages. 2. Reform of appeals in civil cases. 3. Establishing appeals in civil cases. 4. Reform in criminal proceedings. 5. Regulating the exercise of pardons. 6. The abolition of the pillory. 7. The abolition of the punishment of interdict. 8. Of notaries public.

It is our belief that all these hardly wrung concessions will be too late to save Cuba to Spain, but the fact that they seem likely to be made, in whole or in part, should make the Cuban patriots feel as though their sacrifices were sure of reward in any case. Let them keep on fighting, if only to secure good terms.

DEMOCRATIC "GREAT EXPECTATIONS."—The Richmond Enquirer draws comfort from the late election in Connecticut, by supposing it to be the "Lexington of a great political revolution," of which "the Yorktown will come with its flood of good results in 1872, as sure as the party is true to itself and its great mission." What the mission of the Democracy is the Enquirer does not make quite clear, but it is going into the fight of 1872 "with eyes wide open to the new order of things." The Democratic party of "brave little Connecticut" had its eyes wide open when it carried the late election on account of the exclusion of colored voters, but it will open them a great deal wider when it counts them up in 1872. If the Democratic party is going to recognize the new order of things, how can it continue to be Democratic? This penitential dodge will not work in 1872. The colored people know too well who have fought them inch by inch in the slow bloody steps of their progress to freedom and the ballot. They will not be apt to vote with the party that to this day, in some sections of the country, is fighting the Fifteenth Amendment. For the Democratic party to count on the victory in 1872 it is necessary for them to omit the colored vote in their calculations.—Chicago Republican.

A French engineer has made an able report on the economy of using lime ground to a fine powder instead of slaking it in lumps. He estimates the loss in using lumps at 25 per cent. Besides this saving of material, it is found that lime in powder is spread with greater facility, and the mortar thus made sets quicker and is more solid.

An American by the name of Stone has slashed with his sword nearly all his fellow students at Heidelberg, and the University authorities have been obliged to "shut down" on his duelling.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

The Union Republican party of Oregon, in Convention, makes this declaration of its principles and policy:

1st. Unfaltering devotion to the Union, first, last and forever, and unwavering fidelity to the Constitution and its amendments, and to the laws of our National Legislature.

2d. We wholly approve the principles and policy of the administration of President Grant, as carrying into practical application the principles for which we have successfully striven. And we particularly commend these points in his Inaugural Address wherein he declares—"let it be understood that no repudiator of one farthing of our public debt will be trusted in public places, and it will go far towards strengthening a credit which ought to be the best in the world, and I would protect the law abiding citizen, whether of native or foreign birth, wherever his rights are jeopardized or the flag of our country floats, and I will have no policy to enforce against the will of the people."

3d. We have confidence that the Administration will wisely and firmly protect the interests and sustain the dignity of the Nation in respect to other nations, and especially with regard to our just claims against Great Britain.

4th. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime—and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the uttermost good faith to all creditors at home or abroad, not only according to the letter, but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted. And for this purpose, we favor a strict economy in the Administration of the National Government, and the application of such payment of all surplus revenue from whatever sources derived, and that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

5th. We make no distinction between citizens, whether of foreign or native birth, and that we sympathize now and ever with men of all nationalities striving for self government.

6th. That we are opposed to any change in our naturalization laws which shall admit to citizenship any foreigners not now entitled thereto under said laws.

7th. We favor a judicious system of railroad and river improvements in Oregon in order to develop our resources and invite settlement of our unoccupied territory, and for this purpose insist that Congress should make us liberal grants of aid.

8th. We are in favor of a tariff for revenue with such discriminations in favor of our domestic manufactures as will not diminish its efficiency for the purposes of revenue.

9th. We favor universal amnesty to the people of those States lately in rebellion which have been restored to full relations in the Union.

10th. We are in favor of fostering the cause of education, and are opposed to any diversion of the common school funds of this State to any other purpose than the support of common schools.

11th. We recognize in the Union Republican party the measures and men who saved the Government from destruction, and that its continuance in power is the only sure safeguard to national peace and prosperity. And with this platform we appeal to the voters of Oregon for their suffrages and support.

Political.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

For Delegate to Congress:

SELUCIUS GARFIELDE.

Republican Platform

Adopted by the Republican Territorial Convention at Vancouver, April 21st.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Washington Territory are in full accord with the great Republican party of the Nation, the party that maintained and carried the Government through the most powerful and gigantic rebellion known in history, notwithstanding the aid and assistance rendered by enemies abroad and traitors at home; the party that successfully triumphed over the arms of the rebels at the South, that removed the foul blot from the national escutcheon that disgraced us in the eyes of the civilized world, that sustained our financial credit beyond the hopes of [illegible], that has shown a magnanimity and forbearance to the vanquished that will long be the admiration of mankind, and that ever true to the best interests of the people, has opened a highway for the interchange of products of the East and West, an important event that will long be marked as one of the wonders of the age.

Resolved, That we regard the administration of President Grant as eminently successful; that the difficult questions which were presented by the anomalous condition of eleven States at the close of the rebellion have been settled in accordance with the soundest principles of justice and political economy, and we confidently look for a speedy, harmonious and perfect restoration of the constitutional relations between all the States and the General Government.

Resolved, That the management of the finances by the Legislative and Executive branches of the Government by the present Administration has been wise, prudent and careful, and we refer with pride and pleasure to the fact that no financial convulsions have occurred, that the credit of the Government has been sustained, and that the relative value of specie and paper currency has approximated as rapidly as was consistent with the safety of the commercial and financial affairs.

Resolved, That the firm and unflinching position assumed by the Administration in regard to the Alabama claims has already produced the most salutary results, which are evidenced not only by the manifest desire of Great Britain to reopen negotiations, but by a willingness to conduct them in conformity with recognized principles of international law.

Resolved, That the National and Territorial Governments should be conducted in all their branches with the most rigid economy; that the necessaries of life should be as far as practicable be exempt from direct or indirect taxation, and that we are opposed to repudiation in any form, believing that the honor of the nation is of more importance than any pecuniary consideration.

Resolved, That we earnestly urge upon the National Government the speedy settlement of our rights to the San Juan and other Islands lying between the Canal De Haro and Rosario Straits, and the acknowledgement by Great Britain of our just claims thereto, and the importance of opening negotiations for the purpose of securing the annexation of British Columbia to the United States.

Resolved, That the North Pacific Railroad and its branches is a work of national importance; hence we call upon the General Government for the most liberal aid and assistance to secure its early construction and completion.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies; see that they are cured for and cared before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases. In a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, enclosed in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tin smiths, shoe makers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets; for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial, (Private Entrance on Commercial) San Francisco. Post Office Box 952.

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 952 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE.
